

4C's Information

Treasure Valley Camera Club

June 5, 2019

Introduction

- What is 4C's?
- What is their Mission?
- Why is TVCC joining?
- Why do I want to be involved as an Individual?

* What is the 4C's?

* Columbia Council of Camera Clubs

* Made up of members from Camera Clubs in the Pacific Northwest United States

* What is their mission?

* To increase photography knowledge and enjoy fellowship between other member clubs. This is done thru teaching, competitions and study of contemporary and classic works of Photographers and like organizations.

- * Why do I want to be involved as an Individual?
- * It's rewarding to get recognition on your work
- * Allows you to gauge how you are progressing as a photographer.
- * Seeing others photos helps increase your vision
- * Top Reason: To learn and to grow!

Competitions

- * Monthly (Club competition but also awards given to top images)
 - * October thru May
 - * 5 images from 5 different individuals
 - * Categories: Traditional, Altered Reality, Monochrome

 - * No Watermarks
 - * Send to dlwarner53@yahoo.com no later than 5 days before the end of each month.

* Quarterly

* Electronic and Printed Images

* Images are sent in by the individual instead of the club

* Limit of 3 images per individual across any of the categories

* Jan, April, July and Oct

* See 4C's website for who to send to.

- * Annual

- * Individual images that received any kind of award are automatically entered into the “EID Top 80”.

- * Give out 1st thru 3rd and 10 Honorable Mentions

- * Announced at the annual convention (Oct 10-13)

- * Club competition also.

- * Chairperson sends in 10 images to compete against other clubs

In Closing

- * If you win a ribbon it will be sent to me and we will present it to you at one of our meetings.
- * At some point we will also be doing monthly Printed images. Ernie Shook is your chairperson for that competition. There are actually less that compete in Prints so may be a little easier to get an award.
- * Anni Jack is your chairperson for the Annual competition and Allen Baxter is our clubs main contact with the 4C's
